

AGRITOURISM LIABILITY SIGN ORDER FORM

Agritourism, as defined by law, is “any activity carried out on a farm or ranch that allows members of the general public, for recreational, entertainment, or educational purposes, to view or enjoy rural activities, including farms, wineries, ranching, historical, cultural, harvest-your-own activities, or natural activities and attractions. An activity is an agritourism activity whether or not the participant paid to participate in the activity.”

Inherent risks are dangers or conditions that are an integral part of an agritourism activity. These hazards include natural conditions of land, vegetation and waters; behavior of wild or domestic animals; and ordinary dangers of structures or equipment ordinarily used in farm operations. The sign shall be placed in a clearly visible location at the entrance to the agritourism location and at the site of the agritourism activity. Source: Code of Virginia § 3.1-796.139. Warning required.

	WARNING
Under Virginia law, there is no liability for an injury to or death of a participant in an agritourism activity conducted at this agritourism location if such injury or death results from the inherent risks of the agritourism activity. Inherent risks of agritourism activities include, among others, risks of injury inherent to land, equipment, and animals, as well as the potential for you to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to your injury or death. You are assuming the risk of participating in this agritourism activity.
